Recognition of attendance at CPD events run by third parties not in the T&amp;I sector where CPD is relevant	NO
Interested in collaborating with other FIT associations to deliver CPD events	YES
Interested in hearing other FIT associations' experience	YES
Interested in identifying and exchanging best practices and how	YES Over the last two years they have travelled around to their sister associations telling them about this special project (subtitling standards) which has been very successful in Norway. By doing this they have been able to set the same project in motion in Denmark, Sweden, Finland and the Netherlands and they are currently associated as supervisors on similar projects in Russia and China as well. Germany would possibly be next. Travelling to the local annual meetings or seminars has worked fine. Also networking and establishing friendships with sister organisations. Probably by getting to know each other and creating trust and friendship between the organisations. Then by supervising meetings and projects or offering to assist or help with planning or organising events.
Harmonisation of CPD across Europe	We do not really see why that would be a goal. Sounds like a lot of work and it is not very likely that so many countries and associations would ever agree on one harmonised CPD.

CPD events that are "approved/certified" by FIT Europe	Something like this sounds much better. A seal of approval which could give credibility to certain events would be most welcome.
Two issues of particular concern	-
